

European Project NOE: Beethoven Academy I 2024 | Cagliari

The Orchestre des Champs-Élysées (Paris, France), the Conservatoire Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (Cagliari, Italy), and the Armenian National Opera (Yerevan, Armenia) are launching a professional insertion program for young European musicians in 2024, the Beethoven Academy. Supported by Creative Europe, the academy aims to safeguard, transmit, and promote the practice of playing period instruments and to support young European artists in the development of their European and international careers.

Implemented in three stages with the overarching theme "1824-2024 | Beethoven and Europe", the project includes:

- A first academy from Sunday, June 30th to Monday, July 8th, 2024 at the Conservatoire Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (Cagliari, Italy)
- A European tour with the Orchestre des Champs-Élysées in December 2024 and March 2025
- A second academy in early July 2025 at the Armenian National Opera

This Open Call is for the 2024 Beethoven Academy I in Cagliari

Deadline for application: Monday, April 8th, 2024

Announcement of results: Monday, April 22nd, 2024

ACADEMY SELECTION CRITERIA

- Maximum age: under 35
- Minimum required level:
 - > Currently enrolled student or recent graduate (DEM, Bachelor's Degree, Master's Degree, or equivalent)
